

I don't care who the caller is, I have placed myself on the National and State do not call lists because I don't want them to call unless I give them my number. If they start calling I will switch to my cell phone.